(WPHC 2018)

Introduction

The world economic order is changing rapidly due to advancement of science and technology. In spite of, the significant material progress made by the human being due to advancement of science & technology, mankind is still facing the crisis of humanity; crisis of peace and sustainability; and crisis of civilization and sustainability.

Today we all are at the verge of atomic destruction and when everybody is busy in the mad rat race of materialistic pursuit and we are moving in the direction of division of humanity through culture of violence & wars. The world has been transformed into global village where barriers and borders are diminishing, and an emphasis is being placed on the importance of learning how to coexist with people from many different backgrounds. In this globalized world and in a period of global political and economic instability, rising inequality and social unrest, the role of ‘Together for Peace & Social Harmony’ plays very important role in creating sustainable peace & Human Unity.

The main objectives of the conference are twofold:

- 1) To promote a culture of Peace & social harmony, peace values and global peace education to develop a global non-violent harmonious society.
- 2) To promote value for Peace, Respect & Dignity for all and to unite likeminded people with the spirit of a ‘Global Family’ (Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam) to raise global issues in front of public and UN bodies.
